What Meghana says about herself:
“A resident of Livermore, California, I am a Watercolor Artist that draws inspiration from quaint countryside landscapes, flowers, and birds. Lighthouses and windmills are also among my favorite subjects. My style is often realistic, and sometimes impressionistic.”

“I started to develop my own techniques over a period and continue to learn tricks and tips to include wet-into-wet, negative painting, lights vs. shadows, color theory into my artwork. I love using a variety of bold and subtle colors alike in my paintings and must have a shade of green in ALL my pieces! I closely follow the work of renowned artists whose art style and compositions have inspired me.”
